INTRODUCTION

The main objective of this project of car buying and selling website is to provide easy access to the users and to help costumers make satisfying buying decisions and giving them the car for best value and the same for selling as well. Here in this website we include various types of cars offered by us and they are differed by brand and cost. The cos tumers who want to sell their used cars can register on our website and the costumers who want to buy used cars can also register and can buy the car.

AIM AND GOALS OF THE WEBSITE

The main aim is to bring joy and delight into car buying and ownership. To achieve this goal, we aim to empower consumers to make informed car buying and ownership decisions with exhaustive and un-biased information on cars through our expert reviews, detailed specifications and comparisons. We understand that car is by and large the second-most expensive asset a consumer association his lifestyle with.

VISION OF THE WEBSITE

The vision of this project is that “used cars are a great value”. By this project customer gets an easy idea about how we follow the procedure of buying or selling cars in our company.
